

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:13-00030

CLYDE ANDERSON, JR.

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On November 12, 2015, the United States of America appeared by C. Haley Bunn, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Clyde Anderson, Jr., appeared in person and by his counsel, David O. Schles, for a hearing on the petition on supervised release submitted by United States Probation Officer Joseph Black. The defendant commenced a three-year term of supervised release in this action on February 5, 2014, as more fully set forth in the Judgment Including Sentence Under the Sentencing Reform Act entered by the court on July 8, 2013.

The court heard the admissions of the defendant and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respect: the defendant committed the federal and state offense of possession with intent to distribute marijuana as evidenced by his admission on the record of the hearing that the government possesses sufficient proof to prove the offense by a preponderance of the evidence, the defendant having been arrested on July 13, 2015, and found to be in possession of 125 grams of marijuana contained in eight separate clear plastic bags; all as set forth in the petition on supervised release.

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violation warrants revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant should be confined to the extent set forth below, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of EIGHT (8) MONTHS, to be followed by a term of twenty-eight (28) months of supervised release upon the standard conditions of supervised release now in effect in this district by order entered June 22, 2007, and the further condition that the defendant not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: November 17, 2015

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
United States District Judge
